

28th of June 2005

3D print

A complex ring has been designed in 3D with the Software Form°Z . The result is a 3D File.

With a special "printer" this ring has been printed as a physical object, that you can wear.

New techniques allow to print physical objects based on virtual 3D models. This allows new options for Knowledge Visualization Applications.

Details: <http://www.3dprint.ch>

Best regards
Remo